

Big Mountain Resort is on the higher end of the ticket price for the market, as seen below the chart below.

Increasing ticket price and closing runs has a marked effect based on modeling, however, the drop of changes is negligible after three runs closed. With this information, a change could be made, but that does not necessarily mean that there is the best way to go.

Other scenarios purposed had no effect based on modeling, and therefore there should not be considered.